October is considered the “transition” month. It’s like a buffer as the seasons change and we move towards cooler temperatures, less daylight, upcoming holidays, and a new year. But before I summarize our upcoming October Events, I would like to share some September highlights.

New Member Orientation

We started off the month of September with our first ever New Member Orientation. We had six new members in attendance, and we plan to have these orientations every other month throughout the year.

End of Summer BBQ

On Wednesday, September 8th, we had an End of Summer BBQ catered by Sonny's BBQ. After dinner, we played Summertime Feud, a game similar to the '70s TV game show Family Feud.

Lunch Bunch

The Lunch Bunch, hosted by Suzanne Lemmons, met September 16th at Whiskey Joe's in Port Richey and on Saturday,

WELCOME TO FALL

Commodore Patti Ames

September 18th, 15 Club Members attended the Suncoast Broadway Dinner Theatre as internationally renowned World Champion Tribute Singer and Actor, Ted Torres Martin, performed some of Elvis Presley's most exciting performances.

General Membership Meeting

We finished off the month with a casual Pizza Buffet followed by the September General Membership Meeting on September 25th.

Good friends. Good food. Good times!

Hi Ladies,

On Thursday October 21, at noon, we will have our 4th monthly "Ladies Lunch Bunch". I have volunteered to take the lead and have selected the Bayport Inn as our restaurant for the month. It is located on Cortez Blvd on the way to Pine Island.

Here is a link to the website, but you will have to copy and paste:

<https://bayportinn.com/>

Please let me know if you plan to attend.

We can select the next coordinator for November's Luncheon while we are at the Bayport Inn!

So, who is coming to Lunch????

Patti ☺
